

Dress Code

The purpose of the dress code is to uphold the image of 21st Century Leaders and to prepare students for the business world while preserving the summer camp experience.

Professional attire is required for interviews, presentations, and the Leadership Dinner.

Males

- Business suit or sport coat with dress slacks in navy, black, gray, or brown
- Buttoned long or short sleeved dress shirt, neatly pressed and tucked in
- Tie, belt, dress socks, and leather shoes

Females

- Business suit pants or slacks or skirt with or without coordinating blazer or sweater
- Neatly pressed business blouse tucked in
- Business dress
- Leather, fabric, or micro-fiber closed toe shoes

Business casual attire is required for workshops and field trips. Business casual is classic, neat, and appropriate for a chance meeting with a business executive.

Males

- Slacks or khaki pants, neatly pressed
- Buttoned solid shirt or polo/golf shirt, neatly pressed and tucked in
- Leather shoes and belt

Females

- Solid colored casual pants or skirts in navy, black, gray, brown or khaki
- Buttoned solid blouse or knit top, neatly pressed with proper coverage
- Leather, fabric, or micro-fiber closed toe shoes
